Document: 0-18Aug022ks(Export-Information).odt

Created: August 18, 2022

Last Update: September 13, 2022

This document contains information on export and resale of the CRYPTO-BOX® product range from MARX®.

1. Commodity Code (HS Code)

HS Code (Customs Tariff Number) for the CRYPTO-BOX:

84718000 - Units for automatic data-processing machines (excl. processing units, input or output units and storage units)

More details: <https://www.tariffnumber.com/2022/84718000>

2. Country of Origin

The country of origin of the CRYPTO-BOX is Germany, European Union. MARX can provide a (Long-term) supplier's declaration (CCI) for products having preferential origin status for CRYPTO-BOX products which is sufficient in most cases. If needed, MARX can provide a "Certificate of Origin" issued by the Chamber of Commerce in Germany. Please contact us for further details and pricing.

3. Dual-Use Regulations

The CRYPTO-BOX is not subject to the Export List and the Dual Use List in accordance with EU Regulation 2021/821. In Annex I, Part 2 - "INFORMATION SECURITY" section 5A002 "Information security" systems, equipment and components" at "Note 3: Cryptography Note" stays, that 5A002, 5D002.a.1., 5D002.b. and 5D002.c.1. do not control items mentioned in paragraphs a) and b) which is true for the CRYPTO-BOX.

4. US Export Control Classification Number (ECCN)

The CRYPTO-BOX is not an U.S. product because the content of U.S. made technology is below the 25% de-minimis threshold according to § 734.4 EAR (U.S. Export Administration Regulations).

When the CRYPTO-BOX is integrated into products or solutions with U.S. origin, the overall system is generally considered a U.S. product and falls under the EAR. In that case the classification of the CRYPTO-BOX is EAR99. A corresponding classification document from the U.S. Department of Commerce - Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) can be provided by MARX on request.

5. Embargo Countries and persons

Export and resale of the CRYPTO-BOX may be subject of embargo restrictions. Diversion contrary to EU or U.S. law is strictly prohibited. In case of any doubts check the links below, or contact the corresponding EU or US authorities PRIOR to ordering!
